

Associate Program

Overview

Associate [uh-soh-shee-it]

noun

- a person who shares actively in anything as a business, enterprise, or undertaking; partner; colleague; fellow worker:

The Associate Program invites artists to use our circus centre in a process of purposeful and accidental collaboration. It's more than just about our physical space. It's what happens within, outside, in between and beyond.

We know the creative process is rarely linear. Artists are invited to seek in-kind support for their practice in whatever way they wish. This could include:

- Hot desking
- Rehearsal space
- Advice & feedback support – production, marketing, etc.
- Access to apparatus, retired props or other on-hand resources
- Staging a viewing & presentation support including access to our networks
- Something we haven't thought of yet

Tell us what you need. It could inspire us to develop something new. We are testing what it takes to make our building a living artists' asset

There aren't many limits to who can apply to be an Associate. In fact, there's only one:

1. We are looking for artists who are open to a genuine spirit of community and openness to experimentation.

The program runs for six months from July.

Applications for artists and groups to be part of the Associate Program open Tuesday 22 June and close Monday 12 July at 5pm.
